

I am afraid that LPFM broadcast services will overrun the current FM translators. I listen daily to one of these FM translators, KLOVE. The absence of KLOVE would greatly affect the Myrtle Beach community as it would lack a strong Christian radio station. This is a clean, family-orientated radio station, which benefits all walks of life.